

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

Berlin.—Reported that Princess Sofia of Saxe-Weimar will give up title to marry Count Herman von Ostheim.

London.—Prince of Wales scored winning goal in football match between Magdalen and Noble colleges.

Austin, Tex.—Bill introduced into legislature prohibiting tipping. Offenders will be fined.

New York.—Rockefeller Educational Board will give $50,000 to Lake University, Illinois.

Panama.—Serious damage to canal threatened by sliding which began January 10.

Tacoma, Wash.—Mayor Seymour snubbed Dr. Cook, self-confessed discoverer of north pole. Refused to sit at same table with him.

Evansville, Ind.—Mrs. Nellie Mills, 23, resort keeper, found guilty of murdering two girls to hide evidence of white slavery. Life imprisonment.

Columbia, S. C.—State legislature will ask Congress to repeal 15th amendment, declaring that negroes are menace.

Washington.—Cadet Elmer E. Adker, Billings, Mont., who recently eloped, will probably be fired from West Point Academy unless Taft saves him.

Reno, Nev.—State legislature passed woman's suffrage amendment by large majority.

Pittsburgh.—Mary Wall, actress, has asked court to annul her marriage to Wm. R. Antisdell on grounds of fraud.

Boston.—Capt. John Carr, last survivor of crew of steamship Cumberland, sank by Merrimac during civil war, is dead.

Oregon City, Ore.—Minnie Patterson wants divorce from William B. Patterson, Chicago. Spent evenings with boys at club.

Denver.—Thomas Richards, tenor, who once got in trouble on account of his fondness for Lulu Glaser, wants divorce from Mrs. Martha Miner Richards, claiming she used to whip him.

Los Angeles.—Clarence Darrow will take no chances this time and wants 13 jurors sworn.

Christiania, Norway.—Norwegian cabinier, under premiership of Gen. J. M. Bratlie, resigned.

Huron, S. D.—August Zarrow, Chicago, killed, and Earl and Will Medigar, brothers, injured when auto turned turtle.

Etampes, France.—Aviator Charles Nieyport and his mechanic killed when machine fell.

Port of Spain, Trinidad.—Frank Boland, American aviator, killed while flying.

Madrid.—Bider, French aviator, arrived here after flying 317 miles across Pyrenees from Pau, France, in 5 hours 35 minutes.

Kansas City.—John M. Smurr, 36, retired merchant, Independence, Mo., suicide. Poison. Feared insanity.

Winnipeg, Man.—Fire destroyed Hudson Bay Fur Company's store at Portage La Prairie, Man. $100,000 loss.